

How To Register For Group Classes Using your Login

There are several ways you can register for an account as the system will continue to prompt you in different way. It is suggested that you do create an account so you can see your upcoming and past appointments as well as cancel and reschedule any appointments you may have. Setting up an account login is covered in another document.

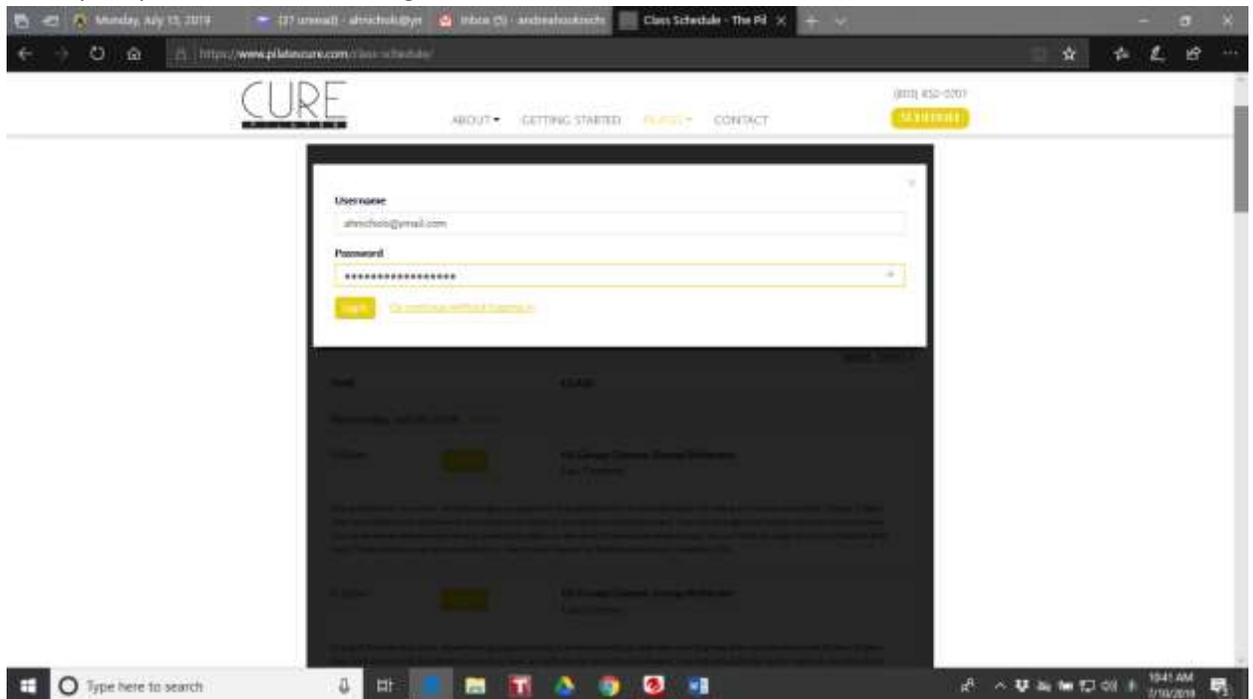

1. To register for a group class using your login go to www.PilatesCure.com and click on the yellow button near the top right corner of the page that says "Schedule"

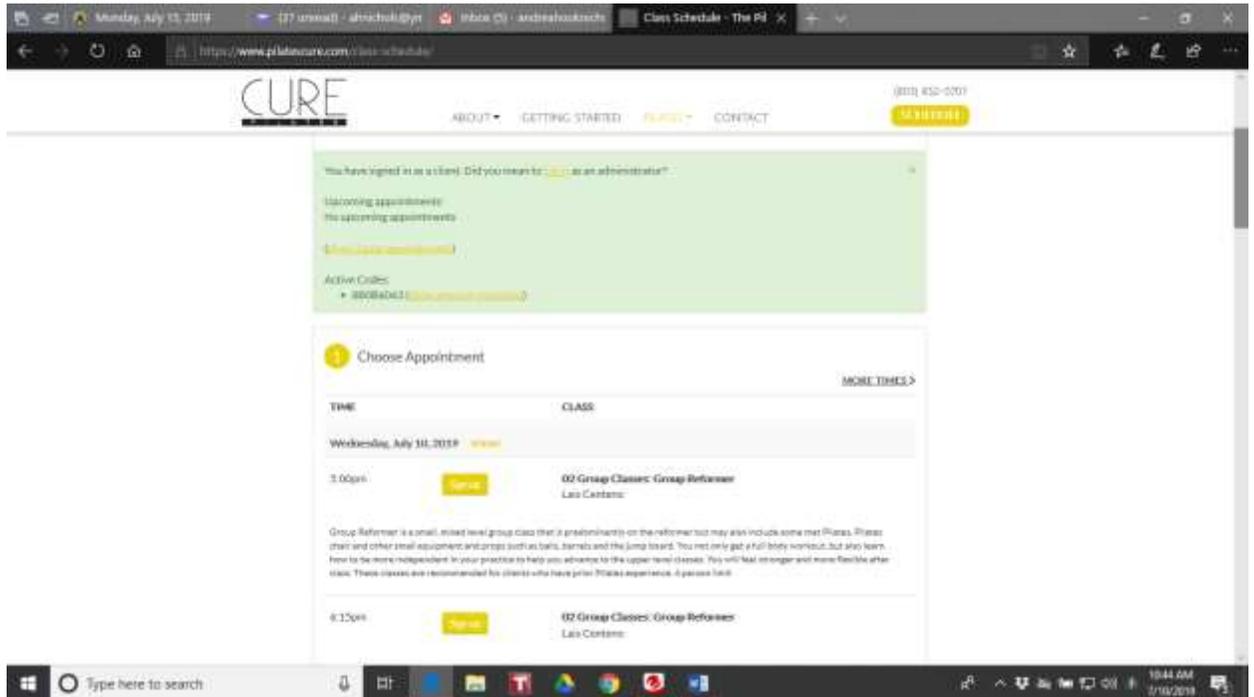

- You will be redirected to the Group Class Scheduling page. Near the top right look for “returning? Login” and click on the yellow Login.

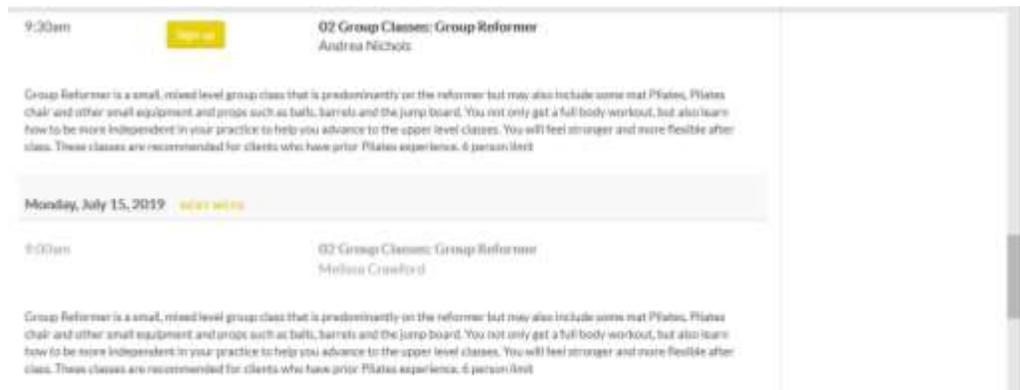

- Enter your password and click “login”

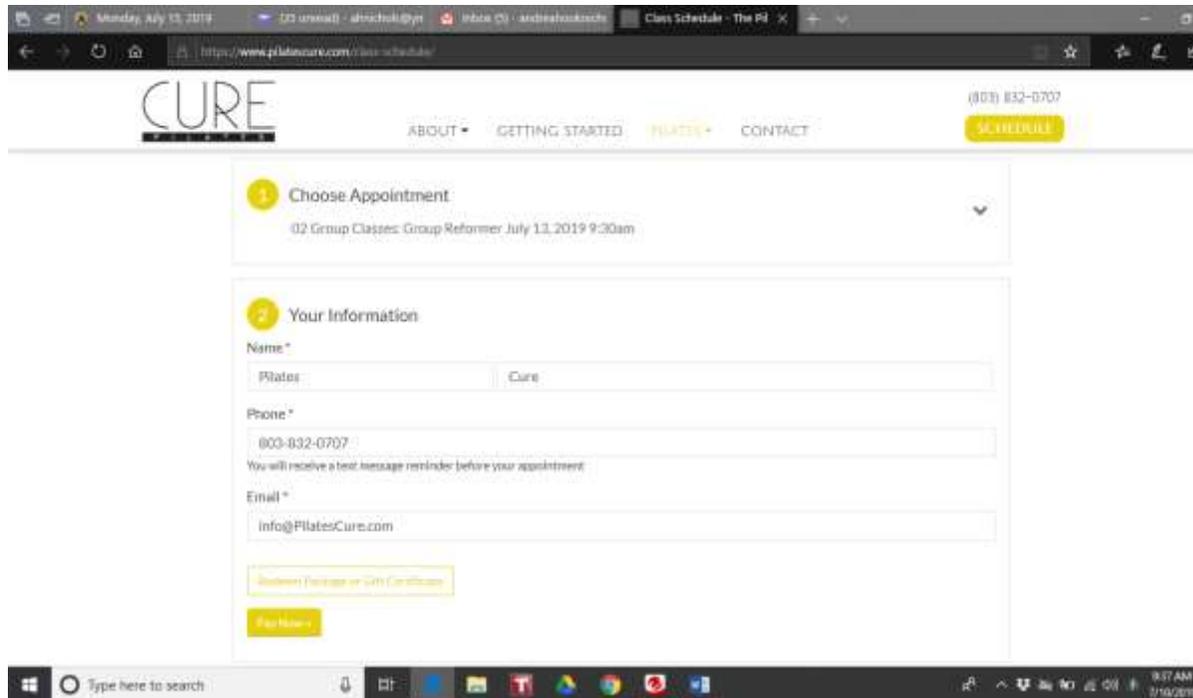

4. You will be redirected to the Group Class Schedule Page but your account information will appear at the top in a light green box.

- A. You can use the information and clickable links in the green box to reschedule or cancel any classes you are registered for.
 - B. You will use the group class schedule in white below the green box to register or additional classes. (continue reading for more info)
5. Registering for classes. The classes are listed in chronological order by day and time. It also list class name, teacher name and class description.
 - A. Select the day and time you would like and click on the yellow “Sign Up” if available. If the class is unavailable the yellow “Sign Up” box will not be there.

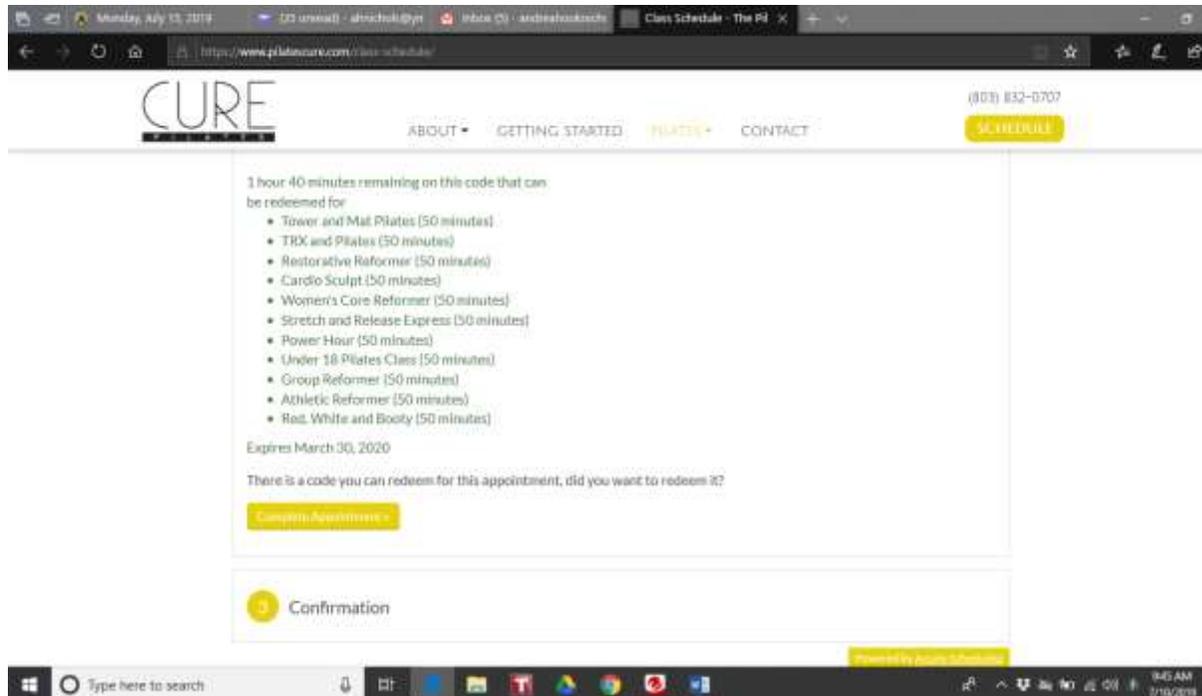

- B. You will be redirected to another page where your info will either auto populate or you will need to enter it in. It should be the same information you used to purchase your package or monthly membership.

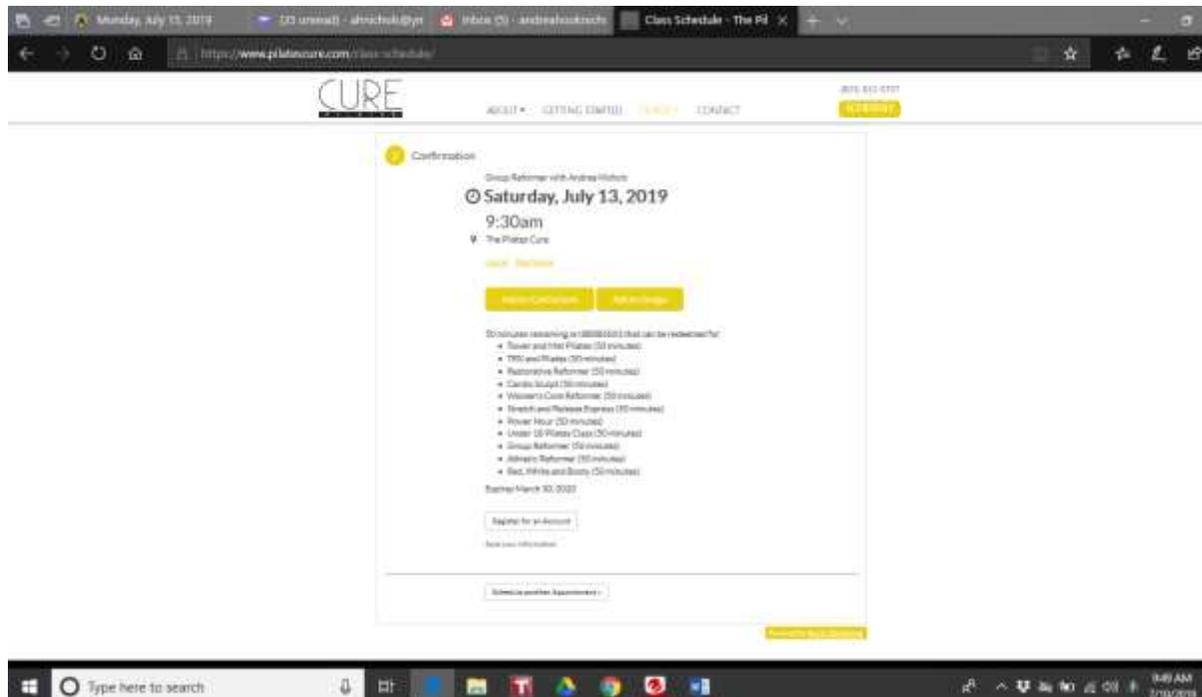

- C. After your information is in the boxes, click on the white box with yellow writing "Redeem Package or Gift Certificate"

- D. If your package code does not auto populate, you will be prompted to enter your package code or you can enter your email you used when you purchased your package or monthly membership. Then click the yellow "apply" button under the information box

- E. You will be redirected to a page that shows you your package information. The amount of time/classes you have left, what class types you can take, and when it expires. You will need to click on the yellow button “Complete Appointment” to finish registering for class.

- F. You will be redirected to a confirmation page that shows the day, dates, time and location of your class

6. From the confirmation page you can:
 - A. add it to your iCAL/Outlook or Google Calendar
 - B. Register for an account (we do suggest this and it is covered in another document)
 - C. Schedule another class (covered further below)
7. If you choose to schedule another class, near the bottom of the page toward the left side is a white box with black letters that says "schedule another appointment". Click on that
8. You will be redirected back to the group class scheduling page. Remember you will always go back to the most recent date in chronological order so you will have to scroll to the day and time you want. There is a "More times" near the top right corner that will take you to the next week (the next Monday to be specific).
9. Repeat steps 1-5.
